

HENLEY HYPNOBIRTHING

Client Terms & Consent Form

The course

Henley Hypnobirthing provides antenatal education and teaches relaxation, breathing, visualisation, self-hypnosis, affirmations and other techniques to support confidence and preparation for birth. Your experience will depend on your own participation and practice.

Medical care

Henley Hypnobirthing is not a medical service and does not provide medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. The course does not replace advice or care from your midwife, doctor or other healthcare professional. No particular type of birth or outcome can be guaranteed and medical intervention may sometimes be necessary.

Participation

Clients participate voluntarily and remain responsible for their own wellbeing. Clients will let Sarah know if they feel uncomfortable or unwell and may stop or modify any exercise at any time.

Booking & cancellation

Your place is confirmed once payment or the agreed deposit has been received. Cancellations and changes to bookings are subject to the Henley Hypnobirthing Cancellation & Rescheduling Policy.

Course materials

Course materials are provided for your personal use and must not be copied, shared or reproduced without permission.

Privacy

Personal information will be collected and stored for the purposes of providing the course, communicating with you, administering your booking and meeting legal and insurance requirements. Client's information will be handled in accordance with the Henley Hypnobirthing Privacy Notice and applicable UK data protection legislation.

Photography & Social Media Consent

Photography and video consent is optional and is not a condition of attending the course.

You can withdraw my consent for future use at any time by contacting Henley Hypnobirthing.
